

COMMERCE DEPARTMENTAL LIBRARY

JUNE LIBRARY NEWSLETTER

THIS MONTH'S FEATURED RESOURCES

HeinOnline provides exact page images of documents in PDF format, which means that all charts, graphs, tables, pictures, hand-written notes, and footnotes appear where they belong, just as they do in the original print.

- Law Journal Library - over 1,600 law and law-related periodicals available from inception
- History of International Law (including Law of the Sea)
- US Congressional Documents (including the Congressional Record Bound volumes in entirety)
- Treaties & Agreements Library
- Federal Register from inception in 1936
- Code of Federal Regulations from inception in 1938

Do you need help with your search? Explore HeinOnline's Quick Reference Guides or contact the library for assistance.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Foreign Affairs online is available for free to Commerce employees, just contact the library for the password and you can access it from anywhere. Do you prefer reading paper? The library also has print copies of Foreign Affairs available.
- Did you see an interesting book on Brazil's growing economy or trade relations with China? Let the library know and we will either borrow it or consider purchasing the book for our collection. Then you can read it for free!
